

Events in Academic Year 2008-2009

Lecture series: The European Influence on Planning and Building Styles in Palestine

Prof. Jürgen Krüger, Institute for Art History, Karlsruhe University

"19th Century Prussian Architecture in the Holy Land: Dreams and Reality"

8 December 2008

Dr. Edina Meir-Meril, Department of Art History and School of Architecture, Tel Aviv University

"The Monastery and the Church of Dormition: Integrating Styles and Architectural Influences in Jerusalem"

12 January 2009

Dr. Ron Fuchs, Department of Art History, Haifa University

"Residential Culture' in 19th Century Palestine: Between East and West"

16 February 2009

Prof. Yossi Ben-Artzi, Rector, Haifa University

"A Piece of Europe' in Palestine: A Look at the Style of Planning and Building of the Templers in Palestine"

16 March 2009

Mr. Gil Gordon, Architect and City Planner

"The Introduction of the Modern European Roofing Tile in Palestine in the 19th Century"

20 April 2009

Dr. Jakob Eisler

"European Building Styles in Haifa"

11 May 2009

Mr. Noam Seri-Levy, Architect and Guide

"European Building Styles in 19th Century Jerusalem"

15 June 2009

Dr. Inbal Ben-Asher Gitler, School of Architecture, Tel Aviv University; School of Communications, Sapir College

"From Great Britain to the United States and Palestine: The European and American Influence on the Y.M.C.A. Building in Jerusalem"